PURPOSE

To provide benefits through loans and grants that contributes to the welfare of members of the Australian Army, in particular members who have served in the Australian Army and for the dependants of such members.

The AMFRTF has set goals to continually achieve the purpose. These goals cover the current and subsequent years of the Plan.

- a. Loans - the provision of loans up to $5,000 to members of the Australian Regular Army and Army Reserve (CFTS) who require financial assistance, and, who have completed a minimum of 12 months continuous full-time service and are 18 years of age or above.
 - b. Hardship grants - the provision of grants up to $2,500 to former members or dependants of members who are suffering financial hardship, that is, in a situation where someone does not have sufficient personal financial resources to be able to provide the basic living requirements, including such items as accommodation, food, clothing and, in certain circumstances, transport and medical expenses.
 - c. Financial management and investment - the provision of sound financial management and investment practice to ensure there is sufficient capital to meet the operational goals and to ensure the entity 'grows' and remains relevant to the needs of Army.

ENVIRONMENT

The Fund does not operate in a competitive environment and, subject to financial and human resources, can achieve its purpose.

Controlling factors: The AMFRTF relies on funds maintenance contributions and investments income for self-sustainment.

Partially controlled factors: The AMFRTF can approve or reject an application but cannot influence the financial behaviour of those eligible to apply for assistance.

Other factors: The AMFRTF is reliant on Department of Defence for APS staff, office space and ICT as well as the payroll system for the recovery of loan repayments.

Administrative: The AMFRTF is a Corporate Commonwealth Entity, within the General Government Sector, and is directed by Trustees appointed by the Responsible Minister. The Trust Fund operates in accordance with the relevant legislation (including the Services Trust Fund Act 1947 and the PGPA Act 2013).

Technological factors: The AMFRTF uses the Department of Defence ICT including its official filing system plus a standalone laptop computer for MYOB financial management. The loans database and web site management is outsourced.

CAPABILITY

The AMFRTF achieves its purpose by continuing to be self-sustaining through low cost fund maintenance charges on general purpose loans, investment returns from term deposits and minimisation of bad debts.

While there is no change to the purpose of the entity, it is envisaged that there will be a need to monitor demand on the limited financial resources over the period of this Plan.

The Board and Audit Committee comprise of Army members and civilians who receive no remuneration. The Board will maintain a continuous strategic oversight of current and future capability, to maximise its utility to Army. Additionally, the Board will monitor operational performance.

The Secretariat is situated in Army Headquarters and the Department of Defence supports its resources; APS staff, office accommodation and ICT services.

The AMFRTF website, with its online application and database capability, is the key to the operation of the entity in processing the loans applications for Army members. The AMFRTF contracts an external provider for the website and database support, and Department of Defence for other ICT support. A trust fund owned lap top computer is used for MYOB financial management and reporting

RISK OVERSIGHT AND MANAGEMENT

Risk appetite. The AMFRTF faces a broad range of risks reflecting its responsibilities under the Services Trust Fund Act 1947. These risks include those resulting from its responsibility of being self-sustaining and performing day to day operational activities to achieve its purpose. The Company has a low to medium appetite for most types of operational risk and makes resources available to mitigate risk to acceptable levels.

The following are the responsibilities for the Board of Trustees, the Secretariat and the Audit Committee in relation to risk oversight and management of the Trust Fund:

Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees will be responsible for:

- a. ensuring appropriate risk management processes are applied, and
- b. to approve the Risk Management and Fraud Control Plan and Risk Register.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will be responsible for:

- a. overseeing the financial reporting and disclosure process, and
- b. carrying out regular internal reviews of financial management and business operations to ensure compliance with risk management and fraud related issues.

Secretary of the trust fund. The Secretary of the trust fund will be responsible for:

- a. monitoring choice of accounting policies and principles,
- b. developing a Risk Management and Fraud Control Plan,
- c. assessing identified risks and developing strategies to manage those risks as they are identified,
- d. ensuring that risks given an “H”^I or higher grading are closely monitored,
- e. maintaining the Risk Register; and
- f. the Security Incident Register.

Note 1: “H” means “High”. It refers to the risk rating grade in the AMFRTF Risk Management and Fraud Control Plan 2018-19.
